Harmonic Body Tuning™

We are part of a vibrating Universe. All the creatures on earth, trees, plants, mountains, valleys, oceans even the earth itself pulses and vibrates with life. These pulses and vibrations form interconnecting fields of energy harmonizing our whole body when a person is in balance.

The application of Harmonic Body Tuning™ uses a variety of different tuning forks, each with its own vibration, placed on specific areas on or around the body. These vibrations elicit responses within the body. The body reacts by restoring itself to a healthier and more harmonic system.

Harmonic Body Tuning™ will help you experience profound inner relaxation, creating a sympathetic/parasympathetic balance or idling of your central nervous system. As your nervous system comes into tune, benefits can include enhanced cell vitality and vascular flow, stabilized metabolism, increased energy, stamina and a greater sense of wellbeing.
